

Advertising networks

List of places to advertise and network in local communities

To give you some inspiration on the sorts of places you can network with or ask to advertise, we have compiled a list to get you started. Think about where your target audience may be.

Allotment noticeboards

Animal Charities

Bingo halls

Blood Donation centres

Book clubs

Bowls / Bridge clubs

British Legion

Bus stops

Cafes and restaurants

Car boot sales

Car windscreen flyers in supermarkets and car parks (check permissions and only when rain isn't forecasted)

Charity Events

Charity shops

Clinics

Coffee shops

Communal halls

Community Centres

Craft Fairs

Dating websites for mature singles (consider advertising)

Doctors Surgeries

Educational establishments (nurseries, schools, colleges, universities) notice boards

Employee Referrals

Exercise classes

Fast food outlets

Flyers in school bags

Garden Centres

Good leavers

Hairdressers

Hospital Friends

Hospitals

Jumble Sales

Knitting clubs

Leaflets, direct mail, door drops and flyers

Leisure Centres

Libraries

Local Facebook or community pages

Local historic societies

Local newspapers and publications

Local Pubs

Local Radio

Local shops

Local sports teams (consider sponsoring to advertise)

Markets

Medical Charities – Macmillian, Breast Cancer, Age UK

Mobility shops

Newsagents

Opticians

Outdoor advertising

Parish magazines

Pet Events

Petrol Stations

Pharmacies

Physiotherapists

Places of worship and faith

Post offices

Posters & banners

Public Transport hubs

Red Cross

Referrals from applicants

Rotary Club

School newsletters

Service user Family referrals

Social Clubs

Social Services

Sponsored supermarket till bag packing with charity partners

Sports clubs

Stakeholder networks

Summer Fayres

Support Groups

Unpaid Carers

Veterinary Surgeries

Village Halls

Village notice boards

Walking groups

Women's Institute